OUTLINES.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan led a strenuous life in Connecticut yesterday, having delivered four speeches, attended two receptions, a conference of New England Democrats, and a luncheon, besides holding numerous handshaking bees; his auditors everywhere were wildly enthusiastic over his presentation of the political issues——Editor Rosewater, of the Omaha Bee, General Grant's war telegrapher, was found dead yesterday——The news from Cuba is of a gloomy character, the insurrection having spread over all portions of the island, in some of the provinces being held up and looted——A sensational disclosure in the Philadelphia's looted bank yesterday was that the State bank examiner had not looked into it for three years and the directors had not held a meeting for nearly three years and knew absolutely nothing of the bank's affairs——The United States transport Sheridan is ashore near Honolulu and so far there is no means of escape for her crew and passengers——The Weather Bureau at Washington sends out warning that a disturbance of cyclonic proportions is prevailing east of Barbadoes——In the District Supreme Court at Washington yesterday, Justice Stafford held that the boycott is not illegal and that it is not an interference with personal rights to withhold trade and urge others to withhold trade from the person boycotted——Henry Bailey, colored, was hanged at Newbern yesterday for the murder of John M. Lancaster, white——Secretary Wilson yesterday notified the meat packers that they must label canned goods by October 1st they cannot enter them into inter-State Commerce; wholesale and retail houses who have caused goods to take chances in shipping them——New York markets: Money on call strong and higher 8 to 12 per cent., ruling rate and closing bid 10, offered at 12; spot cotton quiet 9.80; flour steady, but dull; wheat easy, No. 2 red, 77 1-8 elevator; corn easy, No. 2, 57 1-2 elevator; oats steady, mixed 35; turpentine steady; rosin firm, strained common to good 4.10 to 4.20.

In his New York speech on Thursday night the Hon. Wm. J. Bryan gave the Republican party a Madison Square deal.

In the face of a campaign, Republicans are not supposed to enter into the enthusiasm that marks the homecoming of such knockers as Wm. J. Bryan.

Chief Justice Walter Clark, of North Carolina, has been writing for Tom Watson's magazinee, just as if there are not other magazines for which he could have written.

If President Roosevelt still likes things strenuous, he could not fail to admire the quality displayed in the Democratic enthusiasm over Bryan in New York on Thursday night.

Prof. Thomas, of the Chicago University disputes the Bible account of the creation of man and declares that "woman was created before man." If she was created right before him that accounts for the fact that she was made just exactly to suit his taste.

"Does it pay to be beautiful?" asks a magazine writer. There are some questions we don't mind answering but modesty forbids us to butt in with an answer to such personal questions as the magazine writer asks.

Mr. Bryan demonstrates that he is safe and sane. For instance, contemplate the horse sense displayed by the gentleman when he laid the free silver issue on the shelf as a question that had been passed upon and settled—res adjudicated as the lawyers say.

The Republicans are boasting about the export of tools from the United States to foreign countries. It should be stated that none of the political tools of the epublican party will be included in the exports in the face of an election.

Because Roosevelt had to send his negro soldiers away from Brownsville, Tex., he punished the people by closing up the fort business there. This shows that Roosevelt didn't remove the black soldiers because he desired to placate the people of Brownsville but because it was the better part of discretion.

...NT HAUL OF FISH

Single Catch of Over 150 Barrels at Wrightsville Beach Yesterday Afternoon.

WERE OVER 30,000 MULLETS

Brought In By Capt. J. P. Walton and Seine Crew Off Carolina Yacht Club House—Extra Help Required to Bring Them In.

A phenomenally large haul of mullets, said to be the largest ever brought in at a single catch in these waters, was made late yesterday afternoon by Capt. J. P. Walton and crew just off the Carolina Yacht Club, at Wrightsville Beach. The haul consisted of 10,000 bunches, thirty thousand fish, or about 150 barrels. The catch was so great—and this is no ordinary fish story—that the nine men of Capt. Walton's crew were unable to bring in the seine and help had to be summoned from Lumina further down the beach, all turning out to witness such a rare and interesting phenomena. While the crew waited for assistance the catch was so heavy that the seine had to be turned loose and an underhaul made. The water was said to have been literally black with the mullets and had the full haul been made, it is claimed that the catch would have been a third larger. With the extra help the seine was brought in with great difficulty and hundreds of guests at the beach gathered to see the result of the gigantic catch. The fish are valued at several hundred dollars and will be marketed in Wilmington to-day through the Co-Operative Packing Company. An extra freight car had to be sent down on the suburban line last night to bring the fish to the city.

Some very large hauls have been made by Capt. Walton and crew at Wrightsville during the past several years, but the catch yesterday is said to have broken all records. The mullets are of fine quality and the catch is the first one of consequence in the Cape Fear waters this season. On account of the scarcity, the prices are said to be very high.

CARL B. REHDER CANDY CO.

Store on Princess Street Leased for Possession October 1st.

The handsome three-story brick building which Mr. H. E. Bonitz, the architect, is having erected just between the stores of Mr. W. E. Yopp and the Southern Electric Company, on Princess street, was leased yesterday by Mr. Carl B. Rehder for a term of three years, with the privilege of five, and on October 1st, the Carl B. Rehder Candy Company, one of Wilmington's newest and most promising business enterprises, will begin business there, with Mr. Rehder as proprietor.

Mr. and Mrs. Rehder, who have been spending the Summer at Berkeley Springs, W. Va., arrived home yesterday and will leave to-day to spend the month of September at Lincolnton, N. C. Mr. Rehder while away purchased his stock and came by Wilmington primarily for the purpose of leasing a suitable store for the new business in which he will engage. He has secured the agency for this territory for a number of manufacturers of fine candies and confections and will do a strictly wholesale business, placing travelling men on the road and reclaiming a trade in this line which Wilmington should have been receiving all the time. The location secured by Mr. Rehder is an elegant one indeed and he will begin business in time to handle the holiday trade with a brand new and fresh line of goods.

Negro Porter Accidentally Shot.

Alex. Lloyd, a negro porter employed in Starkey's saloon, opposite The Orton, was accidentally shot yesterday morning about 9 o'clock by Mr. Joe Collins, barkeeper in the saloon. The negro was in the act of handing a pistol to Mr. Collins to be put away for him when in some way it was discharged, the ball taking effect in Lloyd's thigh. The wounded man was taken across the street to Dr. Bulluck's office, in the Southern building, where the wound was dressed. The negro is not seriously hurt.

WEEKLY TRAP SHOOT

Warren Captures Club Medal—Scores Low on Account of Bad Targets—Wilmington Representatives Will Go To Lynchburg, Va.

The regular weekly trap shoot of the Wilmington Gun Club, the first since the recent highly successful tournament here last week, was held yesterday afternoon and was well attended. The trap was not in the best of order on the first round, which was the club shoot, and the scores were rather low. Warren captured the medal with 20 out of 25 targets. In the subsequent events the traps were better and the records were higher. One of the shooters, in connection with the low scores, said that several of the boys "learned something" during the tournament and tried it on during the first round. They were glad to "forget it" after the first round. The scores were as follows, 25 targets in each event:

	1st	2d	3d	4th	Per Cent.
Holmes	18	22	19	16	75
Warren	20	22	24	23	89

Several representatives from the Wilmington Club expect to attend the shoot at Lynchburg, Va., next week.

ANOTHER FIGHT OVER POLITICS.

Messrs. B. F. Swann and T. N. Simmons Exchange Compliments.

As the result of differences over the race for the shrievalty in this county, Mr. B. F. Swann, an ardent supporter of Biddle, and Mr. T. N. Simmons, a loyal partisan of Cowan, engaged in a personal encounter in Capps' saloon, on South Front street, yesterday morning. Mr. Simmons is every inch a man, while Swann is not of so strong a physique. The result of the fight, therefore, was a knock-out for the last named. Mr. Swann had a very bad eye when he later appeared in a magistrate court to prosecute Simmons, who had submitted to Justice Furlong. In order that all sides might be heard, Justice Furlong continued the case until Tuesday of next week at 10 A. M. Mr. Swann will be represented by Woodus Kellum and W. P. Gafford, Esq., while Mr. Simmons has engaged the services of Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, Herbert McClammy and William J. Bellamy, Esqs.

Mr. Swann had previously dealt a thrashing to a negro at Sixth and Castle streets at the saloon of Mr. Capps, where he was employed, but this affair had nothing to do with the "scrap" later on Front street. The negro was caught in the act of stealing something from the store when Mr. Swann kicked him out and later dealt him a blow or two on the sidewalk when he was arrested by Officer E. H. Dement. The latter case will be heard before the Mayor at noon to-day, if the negro can be found.

Arrested on Serious Charge.

Boyd Williams, a young negro who bears a bad name with the police, was arrested yesterday morning by Officer Jesse Brown on the serious charge of having attempted a criminal assault Thursday night upon Mittie Griffin, a respectable colored woman who lives on North Second street, and whose husband was killed in an accident on the Seaboard Air Line yards in this city a year or two ago. The woman was accompanied by her mother at the time, the attempted assault having been near Second and Brunswick streets. The case was reported to Officer Chas. E. Wood and he had the woman to swear out a warrant after which he located the man, and assisted Officer Brown in making the arrest. The negro will be given a preliminary trial before the Mayor to-day at noon.

Street Employe Discharged.

For conduct unbecoming an employe of the city while under the influence of liquor Thursday night, Ephraim J. Dale was discharged as a laborer in the Streets and Wharves Department, after an investigation by the Committee at the City Hall at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. Dale admitted that he was drunk and accepted the discharge without defence.

RURAL MAIL CARRIERS

First Annual Meeting of Eastern Carolina Association on Monday of Next Week.

PROGRAMME IS ANNOUNCED

Interesting Subjects for Discussion by Men of Important Government Service—More Than a Hundred Expected in Attendance.

Rural mail carriers from all this section of the State will be here Monday to attend the first annual meeting of the Eastern North Carolina Rural Carriers' Association, which was formed in this city a few months ago and which has grown steadily in numbers and influence since that time. Monday is a National holiday and all the carriers will enjoy a brief respite from their daily routine in the service of the government. They propose to turn it to good account by meeting here, discussing live subjects of interest to all and cultivating the cordial relations that should obtain among the small army of men engaged in a service of so much good to the rural population at large.

The carriers will begin to arrive Sunday and more than a hundred are expected to be in attendance from half a dozen or more counties in this section of the State. The programme is as follows:

1.—"The Importance of Good Roads in Connection With Rural Service." Discussed by Chas. J. Southerland, Kenansville and W. T. Robbins, Phoenix.

2.—"Duty of Carriers to Patron, and Best Methods of Giving Satisfaction." R. F. Gore, Wilmington; H. W. Whitney, Chadbourn, and J. H. Fussell, Rose Hill.

3.—"How to Increase Uncle Sam's Revenue to the High-water Mark." A. J. Mallard, Atkinson; F. B. Orr, Currie, and Jas. T. Barden, Warsaw.

4.—"How to Abate the Penny Nuisance." C. W. Clark, Chadbourn; L. L. Guyton, Wilmington, and C. F. Mathews, Watha.

5.—"Suggestions for the Good of Rural Service." M. H. Pridgen, Currie; S. L. Bradshaw, Rose Hill, and D. J. Ward, Winnabow.

6.—"Best Methods of Increasing Rural Population—Carriers Duty to Promote Correspondence Between Bashful Lovers, With a View to Matrimony, Etc." H. L. Hoey, Faison; E. D. Pearsall, Rocky Point, and others.

MRS. MARY C. MORTON DEAD.

Good Woman Entered Into Rest Yesterday After Long Suffering.

Mrs. Mary C. Morton, relict of the late Stephen H. Morton and mother of Col. George L. Morton, of this city, passed away at her home, No. 720 North Fourth street, yesterday morning. Mrs. Morton had been an invalid for a number of years and for the past several weeks her condition had been critical. While her death was not unexpected, it came as a sad realization to the family and friends. Mrs. Morton was a devoted member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, of this city, and had borne her long suffering with great fortitude and Christian resignation. For the past fortnight all members of the family had watched tenderly at her bedside and done all in human power to relieve her suffering. The end came peacefully yesterday with all members of the family at her bedside.

Besides an only son, Mrs. Morton is survived by an only brother, Mr. Jesse Wilder, and a litte grand-daughter, Miss Eliza Morton, twelve years of age. They all have the tenderest sympathy of many friends in the loss they have sustained.

The funeral of Mrs. Morton will be conducted from the residence at 5 o'clock this afternoon by Rev. J. S. Crowley, in the absence of Dr. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's church, and the remains will be laid to rest in Bellevue cemetery.

PARLOR AND BUFFET CAR

Coast Line Service to Be Greatly Improved from Wilmington.

It is officially announced from the Passenger Department of the Atlantic Coast Line that effective as soon as the Pullman Company can furnish the equipment, parlor and buffet car service will be added to trains 50 and 55 between Wilmington and Columbia and trains 48 and 49 between Wilmington and Norfolk. This progressive step on the part of the Atlantic Coast Line will no doubt be greatly appreciated by the traveling public.

The Coast Line is now having 40 new passenger coaches built in Wilmington, Del., and these will be put in service as soon as possible. The passenger business of the road is now being given especial attention and it is needless to say that it is growing rapidly.

CARRIERS ARE ADDED

Delivery Service at Wilmington Postoffice Is Enlarged, Beginning This Morning—Postal Receipts For Month Show Increase.

Two additional carriers will be put on duty from the Wilmington Postoffice this morning, September 1st. These are in response to the recent statement of the business of the office made to the Department by Postmaster Wallace and their employment will result in a great improvement of the service. The new carriers are O. D. Telfair and W. C. Noyes. They will not cover any new territory especially, but will be given two routes made from a rearrangement of all the old routes with the inclusion of some little additional territory. Postmaster Wallace made requisition for more than two carriers on the basis of the showing made to the Department, but the Inspector who came here and made an investigation of the situation declined to recommend more than two for the reason that the sidewalks in the outlying districts are not improved, making it impossible for the carriers to cover as large a territory as would otherwise be the case, and for the further reason that the houses and the streets are not numbered and named as they should be. It is to be regretted that a larger increase of the force could not be secured, but the two additional carriers will be a great help and will result in a great improvement of the service.

The postoffice receipts at Wilmington for the month of August ended last night were $6,929,99 against $6,-103.07, an increase of a little over thirteen and a half per cent. The showing is a very gratifying one, indeed, and shows that the business of the city continues to increase.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Insurance Man Not Guilty and Discharged—Police Investigation.

In the police court yesterday Mr. R. R. Richardson, the insurance man who engaged in a personal encounter with Mr. H. L. Fennell on Front street Thursday morning, was found not guilty and discharged. Mr. Fennell had previously submitted to Magistrate Jno. A. Everitt, Jr., and paid the cost of his transgression.

In connection with the same case, Policeman A. D. Woolard on whose beat the fight occurred, was berore the Police Committee yesterday afternoon on a charge of not having made an arrest when the fight took place. Mr. Woolard set up that while the encounter was on his beat, at the time he was talking to a man on the corner and did not see the occurrence, therefore he had no right to make the arrest until he secured a warrant, which he subsequently did and upon which Mr. Richardson was tried yesterday. The committee, however, suspended Mr. Woolard from the force for a week.

The only other case yesterday was that of a young man from South Carolina who was arrested for being drunk and down at Front and Princess streets. He was let off with the costs.

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

Report of Treasurer for the Month of August, 1906.

Receipts—New Hanover county, $125; Mr. Clayton Giles, $5; Mr. and Mrs. William Latimer, $15; cash, $5; Mrs. Roger Moore, $5; cash, 10 cents.

Expenses—Secretary's salary, $25; Catharine Kennedy Home, $12.50; groceries, $133.25; rent for those in need, $14.50; cash help, $3.10; telephone, $3; railroad fares, $9.95; shoes, $1.50; moving office furniture, $2; postage, 10c.

Castle Haynes Ferry.

The forthcoming edition of the Carolina Fruit and Truckers' Journal contains a number of strong communications from leading and influential citizens of Pender and New Hanover counties favorable to the idea of building a steel bridge across the Northeast River, near Castle Haynes, as suggested by the Journal in a recent issue of that paper. From the tone of these letters it would seem that for the first time, both Pender and New Hanover counties are a unit on this proposition, which, it is argued, means added wealth and trade for Wilmington.

Police Promotions and Elections.

At the session of the Police Committee yesterday afternoon, J. B. Hall was elected to a regular position on the force vice J. B. Reaves, resigned, and substitutes were elected as follows: W. G. Brinkley, first; John Thomas Smith, second, and William Howell, third.

WRECK ON A. & Y.

Incoming Freight from Fayetteville Piled Up Near Ivanhoe Early Last Night.

NEGRO BRAKEMAN KILLED

Caught Under Heavy Car As It Rolled Over—Heavy Rains Impaired Road-bed, Believed to Have Been the Cause.

The incoming local freight train from Fayetteville to Wilmington was wrecked early last night on the curve just this side of Black River trestle on the A. & Y. Railroad, near Ivanhoe, about 40 miles from this city. Bob Harrington, colored brakeman of Jonesboro, N. C., was caught beneath a box car from which he attempted to jump and was instantly killed; eight or ten cars were piled in confusion along the right of way and the track was torn up for three or four hundred yards. The cause of the wreck is supposed to have been the unstable condition of the roadbed after the recent heavy and continued rains as the track seems to have gone to pieces under a heavy box car loaded with lightwood blocks and a flat loaded with granite. The negro killed was seated on the big car loaded with the blocks when the wreck came and was caught underneath it as it turned over on its side. Two tramps are said to have been on the same car, but escaped by jumping in another direction from that in which the negro had taken.

Wrecking trains were sent from both Wilmington and Fayetteville, and it was hoped to have everything clear last night, though the railroad men admitted it was a pretty ugly looking wreck. Capt. Fairley was in charge of the train and was uninjured.

The passenger train from Fayetteville, due here last night at 8 o'clock, was caught behind the wreck, necessitating a transfer of passengers, mail, baggage and express at the scene, causing a delay of about three hours.

The railroads all over the country have been experiencing no end of trouble on account of the heavy rains and the wreck last night was but a natural sequence of so much water in the earth. Passengers on the belated train last night accounted themselves fortunate that the freight was running ahead of them even if but a few minutes.

TRIAL AT DELGADO.

Stabbing Affair Investigated by Justice Furlong Yesterday Morning.

Justice John J. Furlong yesterday went out to Delgado and investigated a stabbing affair that occurred there one night about a week ago. The victim of the stabbing was Lonnie Buie, nearly grown, and the defendant at the trial yesterday was Sammie Butler, a mere boy. The evidence showed that Buie had young Butler down choking him and that the smaller boy drew his knife and stabbed Buie five times. Woodus Kellum, Esq., represented Butler, and William J. Bellamy, Esq., appeared for the prosecution. Justice Furlong adjudged Butler not guilty in that he acted in self-defense and Buie, the prosecutor, was taxed with the costs.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

MR. BRYAN'S SPEECH.

Mr. Bryan's speech at Madison Square Garden on Thursday night will set the Nation and the World to thinking, and talking, and writing. That speech will bear reading and rereading, and pondering with deep earnestness. In the space of 80 minutes he crowded into that speech a running discussion of questions that are of deep significance and grave concern to the American people. In a speech confined to such a short space of time, Mr. Bryan had only the opportunity to skim over the questions which he brought up, and it only whets our appetite to have him elaborate each subject. One's impression in reading the great Democratic commoner's speech is that he is a close student of economic and governmental questions and in it all he can't get away from his deep sympathy with the people. In whatever particular any one may disagree with Mr. Bryan all must admit that he is the antipode to hypocricy.

The Charleston News and Courier is a leader of conservative Southern thought, and we attach great wait to its utterances. Our esteemed contemporary so nearly expresses The Star's views of Mr. Bryan's speech that we reproduce its editorial and endorse it as coming near the view of the Southern people. Says the News and Courier:

"William Jennings Bryan has come back home. We are glad of it. In these days of Cowboy statesmanship, of wild and uncertain experiments in legislation and administration, of spectacular performances on sea and land by the Chief Executive of the Nation who has taken unto himself all power and authority, there is a certain sense of security in being able to turn from the riot of Republican rule to the contemplation of the more reasonable remedies which are suggested by the leader of the Democratic party for the evils from which the country must have relief; relief which must come by orderly and constitutional methods or by revolution. When he was in London Mr. Bryan is reported to have said that he was more radical than ever in his views upon the issues now engaging the attention of the American people, but he appears conservative by contrast with the bronchobusting methods which have kept the thoughtful people of the United States guessing for the last two years exactly what to expect next.

"With a little pruning here and there, the Democratic party would be entirely safe in going forth to battle upon the lines laid down by Mr. Bryan in his great speech in New York last night. He stands for the settlement of international differences by the peaceful methods of arbitration. He does not believe in the use of the war ships of the country for the collection of private debts. He would change the election of members of Congress so that they would enter immediately after their election upon the discharge of their legislative duties. He would have United States Senators elected directly by the people. He would impose a tax upon incomes so that wealth might be compelled to bear its share of the expenses of the government which protects it. He would establish a permanent tribunal for the settlement of differences between employees and employers with justice to each and without injury to the rights of the public.

"The paramount issue before the country now is the trust issue. 'There must be no mistaking of the issue and no confusing of the line of battle.' The fight that must be made is the fight against monopoly, 'and our plan of attack must contemplate the total and complete overthrow of the monopoly principle in industry.' The fight will involve the question of protection, the fruitful progenitor and promoter of all forms of capitalistic oppression in this country, the nursery of all forms of fraud in the administration of the fiduciary institutions of the country.

"There will be some differences of opinion between Mr. Bryan and the people of his party on the question of government ownership of railroads and other minor points in his platform, but he has made a fine opening for the campaign two years hence in which he may be made the regularly chosen leader of the Democracy, as he is already its most distinguished and influential spokesman.

"Mr. Bryan's reception in New York yesterday was one of the most remarkable political demonstration in the history of this country. It showed the marvellous hold that he has upon the confidence of the people. He behaved himself with his usual good sense and what he said will strengthen him immensely with all his old followers and will influence his former opponents to take a kindlier view of him and of his claims to their respect and support."

We do not take it that Mr. Bryan really suggests the government ownership of railroads as an actual issue in the next campaign. His views, as we understand them, are based upon an eventuality, and are merely tentative so to speak. The eventuality is that "if" the government cannot regulate or control the railroads then and not till then is government ownership to be a real vital issue. Apprehensive of the startling danger of the centralization which he forsees in the ownership of railways by the Federal government, Mr. Bryan's position is a might be in part relieved of that accsuggestion that such an eventuality knowledged danger by Federal ownership of trunk lines and State ownership of lines within the individual States. As the Star understands it Mr. Bryan particularly disclaimed any assumption of speaking for the Democracy, as a party, in announcing his idea of government and State ownership, that distinguished gentleman being careful to declare that his views were entirely of a personal and indivdual character.

The great speech of Mr. Bryan by no means commits the Democratic party to his views of railroad ownership, but it requires neither the prescience of a prophet nor the wisdom of Solomon to forsee that "if" the "eventuality" mentioned by Mr. Bryan arises, he would have with him not only the Democracy but three-fourths of the Republican party. That eventuality is government ownership of railroads rather than railroad ownership of government. It is not difficult to predict how the American people will line up in facing such an eventuality. Let us, however, be too optimistic to anticipate that we will ever face such a condition that we will have to fly to government ownership of railroads as a refuge from railroad ownership of government. We confess to a horror of government ownership of railroads or anything else, but "if" the eventuality does stare the American people in the face, it must be admitted that Federal and State ownership as suggested by Mr. Bryan would be better than the Federal ownership.

The Star will not admit that we face a condition at the present time that makes government ownership the possibility of an issue in 1908. The recent investigations into the conduct of railroads brought about disclosures that all must admit justified the act of Congress for government supervision, but in the event that superivsion fails and other investigations bring about disclosures that would make government ownership the alternative, it would then be up to us to consider which horn of the dilemna to risk. Till then we will go right on believing that the American people are strong and determined enough to square all issues that affect their interests or the life of their Republic.

Either railroad ownership of government, or government ownership of railroads, is calculated to give us the nightmare, but under the (im) policy of the Republican party and its debauching system of government, we may eventually have to face the music. However, the most necessary and vital action for the American people to avert it, is to root out the G. O. P. American senso may sober up enough to do that and save the issue and preserve the country from the already strong and unmistakable trend to a beaurocracy.

Man Whose Life Had Been Wrecked By Whiskey Had Lost All Hope—Keeley Treatment Permanently Cured Him.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to that of many others as to the efficacy of your treatment of alcoholism and kindred diseases. I spent the month of October, 1903, in the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C. To be candid I must confess that I went there more at the solicitations of my friends than from any confidence I had in the treatment. I had made so many honest efforts to break off from the use of whiskey, only to meet with failure. I had fought so many hard battles with my foe, only to be defeated, that I had lost heart and felt I might as well give up the struggle; but I finally consented to go and be cured, if such a thing were possible, and I thank God to-day that I made the decision, for to it I owe being, as I believe, to-day, a permanently cured man. I have no desire for whiskey whatever, and my health is perfect. Greensboro Keeley Institute is ideally situated in a thriving little city, the handsome building being so elegantly furnished it would be a most desirable place to spend a month for pleasure or rest alone. It is more like a pleasant home than a hospital. The manager is a most genial gentleman, and makes the welfare and comfort of the patients his study; the attendants are courteous and pleasant; the treatment is agreeable, and does not interfere with the enjoyment of the patient for an hour; the fare is excellent and a man has the appetite to enjoy it. He may have perfect seclusion or enjoy the pleasure of society, for among the patients are many men of wit, learning and culture. Altogether there is not one disagreeable feature in connection with the life of the patient at the Keeley Institute, unless he furnishes it himself. H. L. MOORE.

Waynesville, N. C., Dec. 6, 1904.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

The September number of the Atlantic Monthly has been received. It is one American magazine that has a distinct individuality and the number before us is a strong exponent of that individuality. The magazine is one of marked literary excellence at all times, and has a way of its own to appeal to the interest, taste and intellectuality of its readers. Its contents give us story and poetry, miscellaneous and current matter, and ably discussed questions that make it a most valuable publication. It is not worth while to speak of the contents in detail as it is only sufficient to say that the feast laid before the reader is up to the Atlantic's high standard. The magazine is sent a year for $4.00 and sells at 35 cents per copy. Address Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 4 Park street, Boston.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Corn promises to be abundant and high—14 feet in Kansas.—New York Commercial.

—Sinners should not forget that hell with one "l" will be just as hot.—New York Herald.

—Mistur Rosvelt's konversion adz gratly to the hops ov the speling reformers. Thay think thay own the erth.—New York World.

—There will probably be some wonder that Cuba has got along so well all this time with Gen. Leonard Wood in the Philippines.—Washington Post.

—If the strength of the Cuban insurrection could be measured by the number of its generals, there should be no doubt of its success.—Philadelphia Record.

—If you read over that list of simplified words you will notice "kist." That's probably Mr. Carnegie's personal contribution to the movement.—Philadelphia North American.

—There is a call among New York politicians for leaders. An impression existed that too many politicians there made a specialty of leadership and were weak on following.—Philadelphia Ledger.

—Those Cuban insurgents generals would find it safer to follow the usual practice and let the privates do the fighting, providing there are any privates in the insurgent army.—Philadelphia Press.

—The Republicans at Wrightsville last Tuesday night nominated for Congress J. Byron Schulken, of Whiteville. Mr. Schulken is one of the best men in the party, but running is about all the honor he will get out of it.—Clarkton (N .C.) Express.

—We understand that New Hanover and Wayne counties have all the convicts they can care for, for road work. Sampson county has 5 or 6 on hand to give away and Duplin Court will, no doubt, furnish more and why not the Road Committee of the Sand Clay road put them to work if Duplin has the law and begin a convict system in Duplin. It will be the time to begin and this force should cheapen the work of building this road. We have yet failed to see any reasonable objection unless the law is defective for working convicts in Duplin county. If so it should be made efficient by the coming Legislature and put in operation at once.—Duplin Journal.

TWINKLINGS.

—A safe bet is the one you were going to make and didn't.—Philadelphia Record.

—Customer—I want a piece of meat without fat, bone or gristle. Clerk—You'd better have an egg, ma'am.—New York Mail.

—"Did you run across anybody in that automobile tour?" "We ran 'em down first and then ran across 'em."—Baltimore American.

—The Youth—Why is it that so many marriages are unhappy? The Sage—Because there are so many marriages.—Smart Set.

—Generous Uncle—I will make you a monthly allowance, but, understand me, I will pay no debts! Nephew—All right, uncle. Neither will I.—Tales.

—"If you ever cross my path again, beware!" said the man with the red face. "Why, are you going to get an automobile?" asked the other.—Yonkers Statesman.

—Bings—Have you seen that woman lightning-change artist at the vaudeville theatre? Bangs—No. Is she wonderful? Bings—I should say so. She puts on her bonnet in less than five minutes.—Cincinnati Tribune.

—"But," protested Mrs. Newlywed, "I don't see why you ask 25 cents a half peck for your beans. The other man only wanted 15 cents." "Yes'm," replied the huckster; "but these here beans o' mine is all hand-picked."—The Grocer.

—"Here! you, sir," cried the irate old gentleman, "didn't I tell you never to enter this house again?" "No, sir," replied his daughter's persistent suitor. "You said not to 'cross your threshold,' so I climbed in the window."—Philadelphia Press.

—"Young Jolliem always says the right tihng, doesn't he? He never seems at a loss for the proper reply." "Well, I saw him nonplussed once." "How was that?" "Miss Keene asked him if he thought she looked as old as she was."—Cleveland Leader.

—"Why do you always persist in saying you will not be a candidate for office?" "Because," answered Senator Sorghum, "it sounds properly modest, and does not in the least interfere with my chances in case a nomination wants to come my way."—Washington Star.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—A Wilson correspondent writes that material is being hauled for the new iron bridge across Contentnea Creek at Wiggins' Mill. The bridge will cost $10,000.

—Wilson's first bale of new crop cotton was brought to town Wednesday by West Bynum, a tenant of W. B. Whitehead's farm. The bale was shipped to Norfolk for sale.

—Raleigh News and Observer, August 31: George Gentle, one of the men implicated in the Salisbury lynching and brought here to the State's prison for safe keeping, was carried back to Salisbury yesterday to stand trial. Deputy Sheriff Carter came for Gentle.

—Salisbury Special, August 30: A young son of John Lyerly, living at Christiana church, about eight miles from Salisbury, accidentally shot his left arm off last evening while handling a gun. His condition, though serious, is not thought to be critical. He will probably recover.

—The Southern Railway Company has called for bids on the new passenger station to be erected at Salisbury this year. The plans exhibited to local contractors show that the structure will be one of the handsomest on the Southern system and will cost $3,000 in excess of the original design.

—Goldsboro Special, August 30: A peculiar death occurred in a restaurant in this city yesterday. A young negro, who gave his name as Tom Smith, was eating dinner and remarked to those around him that he had had one stroke of paralysis at Kinston a few days ago and felt like he was going to have another. In a few minutes the stroke came and he died without a struggle.

—Elizabeth City Special, August 30: In the Republican conventions which were held in Edenton to-day J. Q. A. Wood, of this city, was unanimously nominated for Congress in the First district. Hon. I. M. Meekins, postmaster in Elizabeth City, was elected chairman of the Congressional Executive Committee. In the Judicial Convention W. J. Leary, Sr., of Edenton, was nominated for solicitor. No nomination was made for judge.

—Durham Special, August 30: The incessant rains in this section have well-nigh destroyed farming interests and unless there is fair weather soon the loss will be almost ruinous. From July 3d to the last day of the month the rainfall was 10.32 inches. From the first day of August up to and including yesterday, the rainfall in August has been 13.92 inches, making a total of 24.24 of water that has fallen in this section from July 3d to August 29th.

—Lexington Special, August 30: The rains this morning were the heaviest witnessed here in some time and considerable damage was done. The electric light plant, the Dixie Furniture Company and Wennonah Cotton Mills were all flooded to a certain extent by the water and had to shut down for a time. Reports from the country show that all streams are swollen to a great extent, and it is stated that the Yadkin River has risen into a regular freshet. Much damage is reported to the corn crop along the valleys.

—Charlotte Special, August 30: Bud Abernathy, the most notorious criminal of the county, who is a fugitive from justice, was spotted in East Point, Ga., a few days ago, and a letter received by Chief H. C. Irwin here, caused him to start a deputy today to get the negro. Hardly had the deputy gotten fifty miles on his way to Georgia when a telegram came from East Point saying that Abernathy had again escaped. The negro's criminal record is bad and it seems that he is protected by a strange fate that prevents his capture.

—Raleigh News and Obeserver, August 31: The remains of John M. Branch, of Wake county, who shot and killed himself in Newport News were yesterday brought through here and taken to his former home near Auburn for interment. Branch shot himself through the head, and it is thought financial difficulties were the cause. The man was 34 years old. He has a brother, W. L. Branch, who works at the Seaboard Air Line roundhouse here. Other brothers are Atlas Branch, of Selma; Hardy Branch, Clayton, and Walter Branch, of Auburn. His father was Newton Branch.

—Asheville Special, August 30: A report this afternoon from the scene of the cloudburst, near Hot Springs, is to the effect that the work of removing the slide and repairing the tracks is progressing satisfactorily and that trains will pass over to-night. Two or three miles of track and road-bed were badly washed and a great quantity of earth went on the track. The big steam shovel was sent from Asheville this morning and also the derrick engine. Two wrecking trains and large forces of men were also sent from here. All passengers for points west of Hot Springs last night and to-day were detoured via Spartanburg, Atlanta, Chattanooga and Knoxville.

—Greensboro Special, August 30: Mr. E. J. Justice, attorney for the Greensboro & High Point Inter-urban Railway Company, to-day gave out an interview explaining why the company had delayed commencing work on the proposed road. From what Mr. Justice stated, it is inferred that the line will not be built. Mr. Justice said that his clients had gone to a great deal of trouble and expense in securing a survey and rights of way for the proposed line, and that they had raised half a million dollars to be used in the construction of the line, but they have been greatly delayed in getting a franchise from the city of High Point. So great has been the delay that his people felt they could not hold the money furnished to build the road any longer.

—Salisbury Special, August 30: The rains have worked great destruction at Whitney. A. C. Mauney, direct from there to-night, says the water is higher than it has been since 1892 and is rising at the rate of four inches an hour. The trestle, long used, is washed away and the bridge, with two sections completed, is gone. The damage will reach $25,000 and more if the phenomenal rise is maintained. From all reports, there must have been an unparalleled rainfall up the river. Great fields of melons and piles of lumber are seen hourly to drift off and one gentleman from Whitney to-night said he saw hoppers, bolters and other mill paraphernalia float off. If the water rises much more it will wash away the third bridge. It will also cause great delay in the work and new trestles will have to be built.

—Washington Correspondenre Raleigh News and Observer, August 30: The Republican State Chairman, ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams, has visions of party success in the State this Fall. To-day he declared to newspaper men that he expected to win in the Eighth and Tenth Congressional districts, and that the Republicans had a good fighting chance in the Seventh and Ninth districts. Judge Adams declared further that he expected his party to make substantial gains throughout the State. This announcement of the Republican expectations in the coming campaign is for public consumption. What the party really expects to do is another matter. Ten Democratic Congressmen is the one best bet at the National capital.

—Asheville Special, August 30: As the result of a bad scrap at the Lyman dairy farm in West Asheville this morning about 7 o'clock, Cage Lunsford is at his home in a semi-conscious condition with a serious wound over his right eye, while his assailant, Henry Jenkins, is in the Buncombe county jail awaiting the result of the injuries inflicted. The men are brothers-in-law and were employed at the dairy. The weapon used by Jenkins was a piece of chestnut wood, probably two or three inches thick and four feet long. It is said that the bone over the right eye is probably cracked. The fight created considerable excitement among the relatives and friends of the two men. Jenkins, it is said, was the coolest man about the place. When the sheriff arrived Jenkins was sitting in the edge of a corn patch quietly whittling a stick.

Sansoury special, Aug. 29: Following the action of the Spencer Board of Aldermen in attaching the names of about four hundred dilinguent taxpayers for this year Sheriff D. B. Julian and his deputies have taken up the matter on the part of Rowan county. No less than three hundred and eighty names of delinquents in State and county taxes have been discovered in Spencer alone and it is stated that the list in Salisbury township will reach 800 or more. It is learned hat all of the names will be presented to the county commissioners next month when it will be determined whether or not the entire lot shall go before the grand jury with a view to prosecution in the courts and double taxing the delinquents. The list is the largest in the history of Rowan county. The investigation unearthing the list of those who failed to return for taxation in June has created a mild sensation especially at Spencer.

—Newbern Special, August 30: Henry Bailey, colored, a murderer to be hanged here to-morrow, was brought to Newbern from Goldsboro this morning in charge of Sheriff Biddle and Deputies Ernul and Holton. The train was stopped before it got to the station to let them off in order to escape the curious public. He was landed in jail without any untoward incident. He showed no mark of dread as he passed in sight of the gallows. Shortly after reaching the cell three colored preachers, one a woman, went into the jail and entered into conversation with him. He showed willingness to talk on religious subjects, but said he had no hopes of being saved. He was quiet and reserved and seemed to realize the seriousness of his condition and stoically met it. He knelt in prayer with his advisers. A large number of curiously incined people went into the jail to see the prisoner, but he retired to the back end of the cell where he could scarcely be seen. He still insists that he killed Lancaster in self-defense and therefore holds his act justifiable.

—Raleigh News and Observer, August 31: The excessive rain has badly damaged the cotton crop throughout the cotton belt in this State. The reporter of this paper talked yesterday with persons from different sections of the State, and they all report large weed that presents a very fine appearance, but they say the fruitage is short and that the bolls are rotting.

Farmers have brought sample bolls here, showing that the rain is proving very destructive to the staple just at this time, rotting the few bolls that are left. Much of the fruit has fallen off the stalks before maturing. Reports were received yesterday direct from Jonesboro, Smithfield, Apex and Burlington, to the effect that the crop is bound to be short one-half. Mr. W. H. Powell, of Fayetteville, a cotton dealer and a large planter, said yesterday that he has fifty acres of cotton, from which, with good average seasons, he would gather fifty bales, but that he is certain it will not yield more than twenty-five, as a result of the excessive rain. He says, moreover, that the crop in Cumberland county will be equally short, one prominent farmer declaring that his crop is cut short 75 per sent.

—Raleigh News and Observer, August 31: Bertha Brown, known to the public of Raleigh and Durham as one of the women of the red light district, was badly, perhaps fatally, shot last night about half past twelve o'clock. The shooting is said to have been accidental in that Bertha got in the way when Wayland Ferrell was endeavoring to shoot another man, as the result of some trouble. The shot from the pistol took effect in the right side, half way between the shoulder and the hip, and the indications are that it ranged across and upwards. The woman was in the hall of her house on East Davie street when shot and was immediately taken to her room. Medical attention was soon obtained and at half past 2 o'clock this morning her symptoms were reported as encouraging. Myrtle Johnson, one of the inmates of the house, told Officer Barrow, of the police force, that the two men were in the hall with a woman named Irene and Bertha, and that Ferrell drew a pistol. At this the woman Irene tried to get it away, but was thrown to the floor. Bertha Brown then caught hold of Ferrell, and in the struggle, with Ferrell nearly on the floor, he reached around as if to shoot the man, but the bullet went into Bertha Brown's side, the pistol against her clothing. Ferrell escaped and at half past 2 o'clock had not been found, though the officers had searched for him and hope to find him before morning.

ATROCIOUS MURDER BY NEGRO.

Virginia Saloon Keeper Shot for Refusing to Serve Drink.

Roanoke, Va., Aug. 30.—Michial D. Custy, a well known saloon keper, was shot and killed by a negro Paul Will Preston in his place of business at Bedford City, Va., to-day. The negro escaped and is being hunted by a posse. The sheriff has sent for blood hounds and the dogs will be put on them urderer's trail as soon as they arrive from Suffolk. Citizens of Bedford City have offered a reward of $500 for the acpture of Preston. Word comes tonight that the slayer of Custy is still at large and if found will probably receive rough treatment at the hands of his captors. It is said that Preston went into Custy's saloon under a hotel early today and because the barkeeper would not serve him and do it before waiting on white men at the bar, he drew a revolver and fired two shots at Custy, both of which passed through Custy's heart. Custy was dead when others in the place reached him. Preston ran into the street and jumped into a hack, giving orders that the vehicle be driven away. The driver refused and Preston reached the lines and whipping up the horses, made his escape. Custy lived in Roanoke for a number of years. He was a native of Winchester, Va.; was 40 years of age, and unmarried.

The handsome British steamer Gretavale, Capt. Scearf, cleared yesterday for Glasgow, Scotland, with cargo of 5,988 gum logs, 710,444 feet, valued at $30,000; seven thousand barrels of rosin and 450 casks of spirits turpentine. The cargo is consigned by Capt. Will L. Miller, the vessel by Heide & Co. The naval stores were loaded at the yards of the Jno. S. McEachern Company. The ship is one of the very best freighters that ever came into the port and really had capacity for a much larger cargo than she actually cerried. The same steamer is expected back here in December by Capt. Miller.

NEGRO HANGED AT NEWBERN.

Confessed Religion and Made Rambling Speech From Gallows.

Raleigh, N. C., August 31.—Henry Bailey, colored, was hanged at Newbern this morning for the murder of John M. Lancaster. Death resulted from strangulation in twelve minutes. Bailey died protesting that the killing was done in self defense. Up to this morning, he pretended to be indifferent as to his future existence, but almost at the last moment he professed religion and was baptized in the jail. He made a long and rambling talk from the scaffold, as did his numerous spiritual advisers.

ADERTISE IN THE MORNING STAR

CUBAN REPUBLIC FACES CIVIL WAR

Insurrection Has Spread All Over Island and Situation is Gloomy.

REBELS ROAMING AT WILL

Bandits Attack and Loot Railroad Trains and Government Is Apparently Helpless—Formidable Uprising at Santiago Is True.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Havana, August 31.—The situation is far darker tonight than at any previous time since the insurrection broke out. News of an uprising in Santiago province, while not yet published here, is spreading about the city and causing the gravest concern.

When Mr. Sleeper, the American charge d'affaires here, was told the contents of an Associated Press Santiago dispatch, he endeavored to verify it through the State Department but was told it was absolutely untrue. Subsequently the dispatch was verified from private and newspaper sources. The extent of the rising in Santiago is not known, but it is the opinion here that the worst calamity of all to the Palma government would be an insurrection in eastern Cuba.

The Associated Press was informed tonight by two reliable eye witnesses that Cardenas, which hitherto has been considered a perfectly peaceful city, was the scene yesterday of desultory fighting between police and rural guards on the one side and roving insurgents on the other.

The only province remaining perfectly peaceful is Puerto Principe. Americans having great cattle interests there are apprehensive lest it, too, become the field of insurrectionary operations.

The Associated Press correspondent at Cienfuegos telegraphed tonight that there were 3,000 armed insurgents in that vicinity and that all the small towns in Santa Clara province are controlled by insurgents who attacks and loot trains and seize the property of foreigners as well as of Cubans.

Trinidad is surrounded by insurgents, and the government appears powerless to protect the property of Americans and other foreigners. Railway trains are held up at will and passengers searched. The Cuban central railway has declined to assume responsibility for the sfety of passengers or freight.

The government continues to make fine headway whichever there is open fighting.

The troops in the western portion of Pinar del io province have not yet come up with Pino Guerra. There are thousands of mountain trails with which the insurgents are familiar and which lead in all directions. If Guerra cared to harrass the government the troops could be killed off by sharp shooters. The government has no cavalry in Pinar del io and the only real soldiers are the artillerymen but as they are afoot they cannot cope with the well mounted veterans of the insurgents.

With a view to calming public feeling, a despatch from the governor of Santa Clara province was given out at the palace to-day but its statements are not borne out by any other testimony.

Americans who come to the legation to ask for the protection of their property are answered by an immediate call upon the government of Cuba, which promises to do the best it can for them. Charge d'Affaires Sleeper advises all such callers to file their complaints in the local and foreign ward copies of the papers to the legation.

To add to the general apprehension the American protestant missionaries of Havana, who are in general charge of the field, say that reports from misionaries outside of Havana are practically unanimous in stating that the insurrection is sweeping all the country districts in the western half of the island and that they are unable to continue their work or ride their routes in their social districts.

Revolution Junta.

New York, August 31.—In an office building at Pine and Water streets, the Cuban junta established offices today. Colonel Aguirre, Major Jose A. Cassiancy and Senor Nordose, who will be the official representatives of the revolutionary movement in this city were present. There were no ceremonies. Colonel Aguirre said that the junta in New York is not to be used for the purpose of actively supporting the armed forces of the revolution. Its efforts, he said, will be directed solely to keeping the American people informed as to the true course of the movement.

Arms and ammunition, he said, could more easily be sent into Cuba from Jamaica than from here.

Luke Gray, a negro, was hanged at Aiken, S. C., yesterday for the murder of a white man, named Clifford Woodward. On receipt of a petition Governor Heyward granted a reprieve of thirty days, but as none of the signers came forward to establish the pleas, the execution was allowed to proceed.

U. S. TRANSPORT ASHORE.

Shridan on Reef Near Honolulu—Passengers in Peril.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Honolulu, August 31.—United States army transport Sheridan is ashore on Barber's Point, the southwestern extremity of the Island of Oahu, on which Honolulu is located. The Sheridan's main steam pipe is broken and the vessel is hepless so far as her own power is concerned. It is reported that the breaking of the pipe occurred just before the steamer grounded and that the crippled condition of her engines was the cause of the accident.

The pipe broke at 1:38 o'clock this morning. Immediately after the vessel struck the reef, the life-boats were lowered and efforts made to reach the shore. The position of the steamer apparently is alarming, but her boats have not yet been able to find a place where they can land.

The natives are now getting to the vessel through the surf in canoes. Captain Peabody says that if power is applied quickly he believes the Sheridan can be saved, but otherwise there is little hope for the transport. The swell is very heavy and the coral rocks are very sharp. Good order is maintained on board the vessel. The transfer of passengers either to the shore or to other craft so they can be brought to this city is a serious problem.

The second officer of the Sheridan has come ashore. His boat was swamped in the breakers, but her crew landed safely. Captain Peabody has signalled the steamer Claudine to take the Sheridan's passengers to Honolulu. If possible the transfer will be made at once, the revenue cutter Manning assisting. The Sheridan is now hanging on a rock amidships with deep water all around.

The Sheridan's engines are being repaired and coal is being rapidly thrown overboard with a view of trying to float her at high tide.

Captain Peabody is quoted to have assumed all responsibility for the accident, saying that the vessel was in too close.

The Sheridan had aboard 125 passengers and fifty soldiers.

The Sheridan is 445 feet 5 inches long and 48 feet, two inches beam. Her gross tonnage is 3,673 and her draught under normal conditions is 30 feet. She was built in Ireland in 1892 and was formerly known as the British steamer Massachusetts. During the Spanish-American war she was taken in the service of the United States government with the plans of giving names of eminent commanders to the army transports.

CYCLONE IN SOUTH ATLANTIC.

Weather Bureau Sends Out Warning of Disturbance Near Barbadoes.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, August 31.—The weather bureau tonight announced that a disturbance of cyclonic proportions is prevailing east of Barbadoes. The cable report came from the observation station at Barbadoes, and as there are no reports from the other stations in the West Indies, the weather bureau is unable to determine the future course of the storm nor its intensity. Reports locating the storm and its extent are expected to reach here in the morning.

The weather bureau in its forecast tonight shows that the fall of 14.36 inches of rain in this city during August broke all records for Washington and in a general reference to the remarkable persistency of heavy rains throughout a large part of the East and South, says they were due to "abnormal distribution of barometric pressure" and that the indications now are for more normal conditions.

MUST LABEL CANNED MEATS

Packing Houses Notified That They Must Comply With New Law.

SITUATION QUITE SERIOUS

Houses Not Prepared To Meet Requirements of Act of Congress and Will Be Prohibited From Doing Inter-State Business.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, August 31.—Secretary Wilson assured the representatives of the meat packing interests of the country, with whom he continued his conference today, that he had no authority to extend beyond the 1st. of October next the placing of labels on canned or other meat products. He told the packers flatly that they must be prepared on that date properly to label their goods or they would not be permitted to send them through the channels of interstate commerce.

The question was raised, as to the status of the goods now on the shelves of the wholesale and retail merchants of the country. The Secretary said it was manifestly impossible for the government to inspect them. The owners or holders of the goods, he suggested would have to take the chances from one State to another. The law does not prohibit their sale where they happen now to be. The disposal of such goods will be dependent upon the desire of the consumer.

Secretary Wilson said that while the packers were anxious to conform, in all respects to the law, the conference had made evident the fact that some of them would be unable to comply with all of its provisions by the 1st of October, because they had not been sufficiently forehanded in their preparations. These men, necessarily, would be obliged, the Secretary said, to confine their business operations within their own State lines until such time as they were prepared fully to meet the requirements of the meat inspection act.

WALL STREET IS SHAKY.

Bryan Blamed for Inertia in Stock Market Yesterday.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, August 31.—Danger signals loomed large on the financial horizon soon after the opening of today's market. Call money opened at 8 per cent., and speedily advanced to 12, the highest price in several months. As a result the market soon broke into a state of inertia, such as it had not shown for weeks before. Another influence which made for lower prices was the speech of Mr. Bryan, although Wall Street professed to regard that as a mere incident, an excuse and not a reason for selling securities. Nevertheless it cannot be denied that Mr. Bryan's attitude offers small comfort to the so-called vested interests on the financial community in general.

The stock market was without a leader throughout the session, but the trading element played for a reaction and so far as any marked tendency was discernible their tactics were fairly successful except in the case of Union Pacific, which held well at a market advance over the previous day's close, and some of the specialties. In this class was included Adams Express, which on a sale of one lot recorded an advance of 50 points. Some significance attaches to the rise in this stock in view of the strength of kindred securities and the very recent increase in the dividend of a rival concern and there were intimations of a closer "community of interests." Trading during the early session was several hundred thousand shares below the average of recent days and in the late session grew even smaller. A further advance in call loans to 12 per cent. and no more definite news as to gold engageemnts added to the general feeling of discouragement, which resulted in almost utter stagnation. The forecasts of tomorrow's bank statement, showing a loss by the banks to the Sub-Treasury of more than $5,000,000 and the general movement extending the cash loss to almost $6,800,000, increased the hesitating tone of the market, although prices were then the best of the day. The closing was barely steady, active issues showing a tendency to rally. London's operations here were nominal, sales just about offsetting purchases. The Sub-Treasury transferred $500,000 to San Francisco. Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $1,400,000. United States new 4s coupon advanced ½ per cent. on call.

Total sales of stocks were 596,800 shares.

Dr. James McDonald Wilson, a practicing physician of Andrews, N. C., committed suicide in Washington Thursday night by shooting himself in the mouth. Dr. Wilson went to Washington about two months ago and has been stopping with his father. Ill health was the cause assigned for the act. His body will be taken to Oxford, Pa., the family home.

Kidney Trouble Attack Wilmington Men and Women, Old and Young Alike.

Kidney ills seize young and old alike—
Quickly come and little warning give.
Children suffer in their early years—
Can't control the kidney secretions.
Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain
Women worry, can't do daily work.
Robust men have lame anda ching backs.
Old folks, weak, rheumatic, lame,
Endure distressing urinary ills.
The cure for man, for woman, or for child
Is to cure the cause—the kidneys.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys
Cure all the varied forms of kidney suffering.
Wilmington testimony guarantees every box.

J. T. Ebert of 515 South 6th st., mattress maker, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills in my family. My little girl complained of severe pains in the small of her back, and the kidney secretions were dark and full of brick-dust sediment. We were very much worried about her and when I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills I went up to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box and gave them to her. Since using them she had improved wonderfully and is a different child. Her kidney secretions cleared up, she does not complain of her back, and in fact Doan's Kidney Pills gave her new life. We are very much pleased with them and you can use my name and welcome."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Still Ahead in Low Prices

Our regular prices are much cheaper than any special prices yet advertised. Our goods are NEW. The following shows how and why we do and can undersell.

Discount on account of large purchases, average,	10 pr. ct
Discount for cash (we pay cash), average	10 pr. ct
Savings of freight on car shipment, average	5 pr. ct
Total,	25 pr. ct

As you see, we can sell goods at a profit of 25 per cent. and at the same time sell them for just what they would cost us if we bought in small quantities, paid local freight and bought on time. We do not try to make 25 per cent.

Our claim is corroborated by the number of prudent purchasers we send. For June the 1st to the present, we have sold $4,540.21 worth of goods, received more than $3,300.00 in cash. Our books are open for inspection of any doubters. When in need of furniture come to headquarters.

COTTON STORAGE FOR THE SOUTH

Memphis Building One Hundred and Sixty Fireproof Warehouses, and Macon Twenty—New Feature in Financing.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 30.—The Manufacturers' Record says in its issue this week:

"The persistent advocacy of the Manufacturers' Record for the last eight or ten years for the building of fire-proof cotton warehouses throughout the South, with sufficient financial backing to make their receipts gilt-edge as collateral, is now producing fruit. Gradually, during the last three or four years the South has been taking up this important matter, and here and there substantial warehouses have been built. Now this is spreading in many directions, and warehouses are going up in a large number of leading cotton centers of the South. We publish today full particulars of the great system now under construction at Memphis, where 160 one-story warehouses designed to minimize the hauling and handling of cotton are being constructed by one company. This, the greatest undertaking of the kind the South has seen, is being supplemented at Macon, where a company has just been organized to build 20 or more warehouses to hold 1,000 bales of cotton each, and at many other points where the good work is being carried on. To a large extent these warehouses are being built of concrete and those at Memphis especially are being equipped with many new labor-saving devices for handling cotton at the lowest possible cost.

"With such a system of warehouses established throughout the South it will on longer be necessary for cotton to be dumped into the mud and dirt and left outdoors without regard to weather conditions or to the immense damage done by this barbarous way of handling such a staple. With the establishment of fire-proof warehouses, where the lowest rate of insurance can be obtained, where warehouse receipts will become even better collateral than the elevator receipts of the grain-elevator systems on the seaboard and in the Central West, the marketing of cotton and its financing will take on entirely new features. It will no longer be necessary to rush cotton to market as formerly, for it will now become, whether owned by the farmer, the merchant or the manufacturer, the very best banking collateral. The saving in the cost of insurance and the "country damage" will add many millions of dollars to the value of the crop. To the extent that the South develops its warehousing facilities it will eliminate the necessity of handling the entire cotton crop in three or four months, as heretofore, and the marketing of cotton in twelve months instead of three, will have a tendency to steady the price, to lessen the cost of rail and ocean transportation, and to enable the South to finance its cotton instead of depending upon other sections as in the past.

"But not only will the establishment of warehouses prove of immense value to the entire cotton trade. These warehouses will be of equal value in many other lines of business, since they will give to the South facilities for storing merchandise and carrying it at a low cost—facilities now enjoyed by the North and West, but only to a very limited extent by the South. Every development of this character adds to the financial power of this section and makes certain its more rapid growth in trade, in commerce and in wealth."

OUTLOOK FOR AN EARTHQUAKE

Greensboro Man Makes Prediction in View of Undisputed Circumstances —He Believes the Earth Will Lose Its Equilibrium.

Greensboro, N. C., August 30.—A nervous gentleman here who doesn't sleep well nights, predicts that there will be an earthquake in this part of the country before Christmas. He says that so much rain has fallen, it not only has greatly "undermined the earth's foundations, but that it has added millions of tons of weight upon the supporting pillars. Added to this he says, that within the past five years nearly one hundred million tons of iron ore alone, amounting to 2,060,000,000 pounds, not to speak of enormous qauntities of tons of gold coppers, lead, etc., have been taken from the bowels of the earth in one section and placed in another. He is satisfied that if this shifting of weights doesn't produce an earthquake, on top of the heavy rains, there certainly will be a general "unbalancing" of the globe when the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans are disturbed and the equillibrium fixed by the Almighty changed by the digging of the Panama canal. The scholarly citizen seems determined to have an earthquake.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, August 31.—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today with trading mostly professional, and in the way of evening up for over the holidays, the New York and New Orleans markets being closed on Saturday and Monday, while Liverpool will remain open. The close was barely steady at a net decline of 12 to 13 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 250,000 bales. The market opened steady at a decline of 5 to 9 points under easier cables and increased the loss to a matter of 10 to 11 points shortly after the opening, owing to favorable weather reports and further price condition, reports showing a deterioration ranging from about 3 to 5 per cent. for the month. There was considerable covering at the decline, and during the middle session the market rallied to within 2 or 3 points of last night's finals, but this covering seemed to clear up the scattering short interests and the market turned weak in the trading later, under liquidation and a renewal of bear pressure. The close was at practically the low point of the day. The trade appears to be looking for a government report between the 7th and 11th of next month, reflecting about the same loss in condition as that shown by the five previous reports so far issued. The report will compare with 82.9 per cent. last month, 72.1 per cent. last year. The cotton exchange estimates the commercial crop of the season just ended at 11,225.000 bales.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 17,503 bales against 9,361 last week and 16,998 last year. For the week 72,000 bales against 49,414 last week and 89,620 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 3,501 bales against none last year, and at Houston 8,553 bales against 9,770 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 9.80; middling gulf 10.05; sales 600 bales. Futures barely steady. Prices follow:

WILD ENTHUSIASM OVER COLONEL BRYAN

He Led Strenuous Life in Connecticut Yesterday. Delivered Four Speeches, Attended Two Receptions and Numerous Handshaking Bees.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New Haven, Conn., August 31.—The visit of William Jennings Bryan to Connecticut today must have strongly reminded him of the strenuous days during his Presidential campaigns, for he delivered four addreses, each of considerable length, attended two receptions and was the center of handshaking bees whenever his admirers could reach him. All this was crowded into the hours between noon, when he reached this city, and the hour of his retirement tonight as the guest of former Senator Archibald McNeil, of Bridgeport. Everywhere he was heartily received, although there was an absence of street demonstrations both here and in Bridgeport.

His auditors, however, at times, were wildly enthusiastic, especially at the noon luncheon here. The features of the day were the luncheon and the conference of New England Democrats. At the former Mr. Bryan was welcomed to the city and State with a cordiality that for warmth has seldom been extended to a visitor, and at the latter he stood before a representative body of New England Democrats and with great earnestness spoke of the problem which the party must face in the coming campaigns. Mr. Bryan said in the course of his address that New England never had been a "good breeding place for Democrats; Jefferson had never considered it so; neither did Jackson."

A delay at the start of Mr. Bryan's trip caused an overlapping of the three meetings here to the disappointment of many. The mass meeting on the green had to be started before the luncheon was actually over and the Democratic conference was not completed until it was time for Mr. Bryan to deliver his third address of the day. The chief change in the programme here was the inclusion of ex-Governor Garvin, of Rhode Island, as one of the speakers, after the address he had prepared for the luncheon had been ruled out as being out place at a strictly non-partisan gathering, the change being made at the last moment. Mr. Garvin spoke at the luncheon, however, paying a tribute to the uprightness of Mr. Bryan. Mr. Bryan left New Haven for Bridgeport shortly before 6 o'clock, in that city going to the home of Mr. McNeil for dinner, and later addressing an audience at the armory. Both of his main addresses at the mass meetings were along lines of his address at Madison Square Garden last night, touching upon those issues which he has declared to be of paramount importance at this time.

Tomorrow morning Mr. Bryan will return to New York. Most of the members of his party who were with him today left for their homes tonight.

At the meeting at the green George Fred Williams finished an address just as Mr. Bryan entered the big grand stand amid great applause. Mr. Bryan was introduced during defening applause and held the attention of his big audience for nearly three-quarters of an hour. He said among other things:

"I have found that the government is to a very large extent an accurate reflection of the intelligence of a people for where there is great ignorance there is usually very bad government. Where the people are not trained to studies and do not for themselves understand the issue they are taken advantage of by those who do understand. And I have been encouraged to find out that everywhere there is a tendency to enlarge the sphere of education for it means that there will also be growth in the government towards perfection.

"Now today the Democratic party has a policy. The eRpublican party does not outline its policy as the Democratic party does. The President today is embarrassed by the fact that you can search the platform upon which he was elected with a magnifying glass and you cannot find one single promise of reform on any subject.

"It has made the President's task difficult. The trouble with the President is that when he tried to do anything he had to whip the Republicans in line with the Democratic platform instead of the Republican platform. And the trouble with the Republican party in this campaign is that its motto is, "stand pat, defend what you have and don't promise anything more." They say stand by the President, well, my friends, the only way you can stand by the President, if he really wants reform, is to give him a Democratic Congress to back him up instead of a Republican Congress.

"My friends, I believe that a private monopoly is an indefensible thing. You cannot find a Republican platform that denounces the people of private monopoly. The line is going to be drawn. We are going to find out who is in favor of exterminating a trust and who is not in favor of it and the line is going to be drawn on that principle. The man who is in favor of regulating it might just as well take off the mask and declare himself, for you cannot regulate a private monopoly, it regulates you.

They tell you that arbitration is a fanciful thing. I tell you that the President of the United States has to his credit a great achievement. He settled the coal strike after a loss of ninety-nine millions of dollars. I glory in the fact that he settled it. I think it is one of the proudest acts of his official capacity, but my friends I am not satisfied that we shall have one strike settled after a loss of ninety-nine millions of dollars. I want a system that will make it unnecessary for a man to starve his wife in order to fix the price by which he can live.

But no American can travel through other lands without feeling his heart glow with pride that his lot was cast in the United States. I have never felt so grateful in my life since I have seen the old world, that a kind providence cast my lot under the stars and stripes."

NOT ILLEGAL TO BOYCOTT.

District Supreme Court at Washington Decides for Labor Unions.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, August 31.—The right of labor unions and their sympathizers to call on their friends to withhold patronage from non-union tradesmen, was recognized as not being illegal by Justice Stafford in the District Supreme Court here today. In making this decision Justice Stafford dismissed the temporary injunction against the Bakery and Confectionery Workers' International Union, which had been obtained by John Bender a local baker, who alleged that he was being harrassed by means of a systematic boycott of him and that his customers had been asked to trade elsewhere. Justice Stafford said that the principle involved was the right of individual liberty both of the complainant and the defendant, and that, therefore, so long as all parties concerned were left free to follow their own choice, as they decided their self interest dictated, there was no infringment of the personal liberty of any one.

The court referred to the existence of a combination but said that its purpose was not divulged. "Therefore," he said, "no other rational explanation of the conduct of the defendants can be found than that they have combined to demonstrate to Bender that he cannot conduct a profitable business with non-union help and thereby compel him to employ union men."

The court held that such a combination was lawful.

GRANT'S TELEGRAPHER DEAD.

Editor of Omaha Bee Found Dead Yesterday.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Omaha, Neb., August 31.—Edward Rosewater, proprietor and editor of the Omaha Bee, and prominently identified with political, financial and business affairs of Omaha and the State of Nebrska for forty years, was found dead in District Court room No. 6 on the third floor of the Bee building early today. It is supposed that Mr. Rosewater sat down on a bench in the court room, fell asleep and died of heart failure.

It was the habit of Mr. Rosewater to go to different parts of the building at his pleasure and it is presumed he stepped into the large court room and sat down on one of the benches for a minute's repose.

Dr. Charles Rosewater, brother of the dead editor, said to The Associated Press that Mr. Rosewater had often expressed a wish that when death came it would be quick and painless.

Dr. Rosewater attributed the sudden death of his brother to excitement attendant on a long campaign in which Mr. Rosewater was a prominent candidate for the nomination for United States Senator by the Nebraska State Convention which was held August 22 and resulted in the nomination of Norris Brown.

Mr. osewater's life has been an active one and the greater part of that activity has been spent in Omaha. For some time before coming to Omaha he was manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, having followed the telegraph profession before and during the war. He was a military telegrapher and was a trusted telegrapher of General Grant. After leaving the Western Union Company, Mr. Rosewater founded the Omoha Bee, a small afternoon paper. He developed the paper into one of the largest newsjapers in the West. A few years ago he gave aver the active management of the paper to his two sons, Victor and Charles Rosewater, though he retained the title of editor. He was born at Bukovan Bohemia, in 1841. He came to the United States in 1854.

ROTTEN BANKING IN PHILADELPHIA

Directors of Looted Bank Didn't Hold Meeting for Nearly Three Years.

PRESIDENT BOSSED CONCERN

State Bank Examiners Had Not Looked Into Affairs of Institution for Three Years—Directors Ignorant of Affairs.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Philadelphia, August 31.—Additional developments, sensational in character, continue to crop out in connection with the failure of the Real Estate Trust Company, which institution closed its doors on Tuesday of this week. To-day it became known publicly, for the first time since the suspension of the trust company, that there had not been a meeting of the directors of the failed bank for nearly three years—every detail having been left to the president of the company, Frank K. Hipple. It was this state of affairs which caused the Clearing House Association to hesitate about coming to the aid of the trust company at the meeting on Tuesday. During the meeting of the Clearing House bankers, Joseph DeF. Junkin, a counsel for the Real Estate Trust Company, was asked:

"When was your trust company last examined by the State Board?"

"About three years ago," slowly replied Mr. Junkin.

This frank admission caused a mild sensation among the bankers present, but when he was asked:

"When did the directors of the trust company last examine its affairs?" his answer, "Not for more than two and a half years," caused the men who guide the affairs of Philadelphia's financial institutions to gasp.

Criticism of the members of the Clearing House Association was responsible for this information being given out to-day by one of the leading members of the association. Several of the directors of the trust company had stated since the crash that the company could have been saved had the local bankers advanced $7,000,000. A member of the Clearing House Association, who was present at Tuesday's meeting, said to-day:

"The directors of the Real Estate Trust Company knew as little about the affairs of the company as any of the bankers present. They did not appear to know whether the shortage was $5,000,000 or $10,000,000, and it would have been folly for us to have advanced the cash when the affairs of the bank were in such a deplorable condition. Mr. Junkin could not tell us why the State Board of Examiners and the Board of Directors of the trust company had failed to do their duties for nearly three years. The three directors of the company who came before us with outstretched hands for $7,000,000 had absolutely nothing to offer in return, but dead sea fruit. They had not even confidence in their company's future to offer, for when they were asked if they would pledge their fortunes to make good losses that the allied banks must sustain by 'going it blind,' their answer was a painful silence. Under such circumstances the Clearing House could not be expected to come to the aid of the trust company."

NEGRO BUSINESS LEAGUE.

Criminals of Race and Lynching Strongly Condemned.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Atlanta, August 31.—The National Negro Business League to-day adopted resolutions defining its attitude on several important questions affecting the race in the United States. Declaring that the league does not concern itself with all the interests of the race, the resolutions declare that it does not overlook the progress of the race religiously, morally, educationally and politically. It affirms the belief that this race, like all other races, must depend for its progress in all directions upon its own ability. Regarding lynching the resolutions declare:

"We believe that the progress and happiness of the two races in the South are so woven that whatever helps the one, helps the other and whatever retards the progress of the one retards the progress of the other. To this end we especially discourage and condemn the crime of lynching; we discourage and condemn the criminal negro as well as the criminal of all races, as enemies to our civilization; and we extend our thanks to the officials of the States that enforce the laws against lynching and evil-doers generally."

At to-day's session the National Negro Banking Association was formed with W. R. Pettiford, of Birmingham, Ala., as president, and J. H. McConico, of Little Rock, Ark., secretary-treasurer. A committee was also appointed to consider the question of practical business cooperation among these banks.

Booker T. Washington was again elected president of the league. Few changes were made in the other officers.

The action of the executive committee in selecting Topeka, Kan., as the next meeting place was approved.

DEATH OF ASHEVILLE RESIDENT

Millionaire of Cleveland Who Was Great Benefactor.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Clevelad, O., August 31.—George W. Pack, one of the pioneers in the lumber trade of the northwest and formerly a resident of this city, died today at his Summer home at Southampton, L. I. Mr. Pack had practically made his home at Asheville, N. C., since 1895 and out of his large fortune, estimated at more than a million dollars contributed to many public enterprises in that city. One of the principal parks in that city was among the gifts as was also a statue of General Zebulon Vance which stands nearby. A free kindergarden supported by him and numerous public charities exist at Asheville, as a result of his generosity. Mr. Pack's son, Charles L. Pack, is a well known business man of Cleveland.
